[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., August 30.—Taking rides on the curves of Salve and Deacon Morrissey, who relieved him in the third, the Tars had no trouble this afternoon in defeating the Colts to the tune of 10 to 3, and incidentally fattening batting averages almost all along the line.

Cold, with a constant promise of rain, the attendance was small, the smallest of some time, but it didn't show up missing in enthusiasm, and the game abounding in sharp batting with a number of long drives sandwiched as was the kind that electrifies not only the cranklest of the cranks, but causes the sober and serious to sit up and take notice. To help things along terre were several brilliant fielding stunits that required renewed outbursts of enthusiasm as recognition.

Norfolk took the lead at the jumpoff. Bonner accepted one on the shins and walked. Busch singled over first, Murdock laid one down, and Salve failed to catch Bonner at third, and the bases were covered. Jackson singled to left, driving in Bonner and Busch, Munson hit to centre for three bases, sending in Murdock and Jackson. Johnson quit on a grounder to Salve Bigble grounded to second and Munson was caught at the plate. Regry singled, Vance sent up an easy one to second. Four runs.

In the third, singles in succession by Dobson and Messitt, a double by Salve, an out by Burke and a single by Shaw gave the Colts three runs.

A free pass to Jackson, who was sacrificed to second and stote third, counted for a Tar run in the third, as Bigble ringled.

Tingled.

In the fifth, one out, Munson singled and went to third when Johnson planted one safe in right. Messitt threw wild to stop Johnson's steal and Munson scored. Bigble grounded to Morrissey for an out, and Reggy fanged.
